

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PACE TRAINING GROUP, INC. IS NOW
INTELLECTUAL BUSINESS SOLUTIONS, INC.™

Columbia, MD – Columbia based information technology and consulting firm PACE Training Group, Inc., today announced plans to change its corporate name to Intellectual Business Solutions, Inc. effective immediately.

“The decision to change the name of the corporation is a direct response to the firm’s growth and expanded diversity of products and services over the past three years. The expansion includes the new partnership with Business Objects™, the leader in the Business Intelligence industry. We have done an extensive amount consulting in the area database reporting, specifically Crystal Reports. After working on business intelligence projects, increased Crystal Reports consulting, and the development of numerous database applications both web-based and desktop, we felt it was necessary to change the company name and continue in that path”, says Valerie Simpkins, President and CEO of Intellectual Business Solutions, Inc.

Software applications training will continue to part of the company’s services which will now include web-based instruction, both with live instruction and interactive for self-paced learning. The company will soon open its first online university, IBS University (www.ibsuniversity.com). “We are so excited to have an online learning center which will allow us to not only provide our existing customers with additional support through the use of forums, demos, “how-to’s”, tips, and Podcasts; it will also allow us to reach those who have been unable to attend our public and online classes. They will now have an opportunity to have a blended learning experience”, says David Simpkins, VP of Marketing and Development.

Founded in 1994, the company began as a training firm specializing in instructor-led software training, database reporting, and curriculum development for off-the-shelf and proprietary applications. Intellectual Business Solutions, Inc. is a woman-owned, 8(a) and Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) certified organization and holds a GSA Schedule. Corporate clients include major businesses, government, B2B organizations, industry, and individuals.

The company is a provider of software applications training and consulting services to support Crystal Reports Server, SQL, Crystal Xcelsius, Alpha Five, Breeze, Captivate, Adobe Illustrator, RoboHELP, RoboDemo, Flash, Captivate, Microsoft Office, Access, Word, PowerPoint, Excel, FoxPro, R&R Report Writer, R&R Report Works, QuickBooks, FoxPro, Visual Basic, Microsoft Project, Visual Basic, as well as other proprietary applications such as iMIS, Abra, and more. Additional technology application tools included but are not limited to PHP, ColdFusion, ASP, Java, SQL Server, Oracle, PL/SQL, XML, Cobol, and DB2.
